

Dear Students, Ladies and Gentlemen,

with the entry into force of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU 2016/679) of 27 April 2016, which protects the data of physical persons, as well as the repeal of Directive 95/46/EC (general regulation on data protection known as RODO), we hereby inform you in accordance with Art. 13 GDPR that your email address has been processed by the Language School Dialog School of Polish (with its seat at Al. płk. Wł. Beliny-Prażmowskiego 27/3, 31-514 Kraków) in order to provide information on current events related to the activities of the School and organized courses. Your personal data will not be transferred to third parties or third countries.

Your personal data is processed on the basis of Art. 6(1) GDPR, i.e. for purposes resulting from the legitimate interests of the administrator, including the purposes of concluding a language course contract and disseminating information on the current activities of the School for persons who have expressed the desire to receive such information and have provided their email address for this purpose.

We would also like to point out that, in accordance with the new regulation, each person whose data has been processed by the School has the right to demand access to it, as well as to its correction, deletion or to limit its processing. Providing the data was voluntary, but necessary in order to receive information about the School's activities and organized courses.

Your data is not subject to profiling. Your personal data will not be transferred to third parties or third countries, they will be processed only on the territory of RP accordingly to the School needs.

The Language School Dialog School of Polish makes every effort to ensure that all personal data processed as part of its activities are protected from unauthorized disclosure to third parties. To this end, organizational and technical measures have been implemented to ensure the security and confidentiality of the data being processed.
